As the COVID-19 virus continues to impact the global community, we would like to inform you of the measures taken by Yates & Company, Inc. and our Principals, to ensure the continuity of our operations.

We are relying on recommendations and information provided by government authorities, World Health Organization (WHO) and the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in the United States to establish our health and safety measures. We are closely monitoring official sources of information to make any needed adjustments.

We are making sure all our team can work from home as required and maintain contact through virtual tools, ensuring uninterrupted service across all our business lines.

It goes without saying that the health and security of our employees, clients and partners is most important to us. Therefore, all our employees are complying with the most current local, state and federal government directives. All professional travel has been canceled and any participation in tradeshow or any major gathering is suspended until further notice.

This is an unprecedented time for everyone, and the COVID-19 situation is changing daily. We are committed to our customers and will continue to provide the outstanding service you have come to expect from Yates & Company, Inc. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions at info@yatesco.net.
